

SyDE

WISE Program for Sustainability
in the Dynamic Earth

LESSON FOR THE FUTURE

WHAT CAN WE DO, AS DISASTER SCIENCE STUDENTS?

DATE

26 September 2023
PM 4:30 ~ 6:00

PLACE

Lecture room 1, Engineering Laboratory
Complex Building (C10) / ONLINE

REGISTRATION HERE

Registration Deadline : 23 September

<https://forms.gle/uZQGChH5TFLtyRvZ9>

Richard Halberstadt

Director of the Ishinomaki City
Kadonowaki Elementary School Ruins

Contents

16:30~17:30 Lecture

17:30~18:00 Discussion

UK born Richard Halberstadt originally came to Ishinomaki City, Miyagi Prefecture in 1993 as a lecturer at Ishinomaki Senshu University, which is where he was when the 2011 earthquake and tsunami struck.

2 years later he left the university, and in 2015 started to work informing and educating people both inside and outside Japan about the disaster. In this event, Mr. Halberstadt will talk about the damage caused to Ishinomaki by the disaster and his current workplace, Kadonowaki Elementary School Ruins, along with episodes from his own experience of 3.11.

TOHOKU
UNIVERSITY